STUDENT ETHICS STATEMENT

Prior to beginning any course, the CTECS student must sign this statement to ensure the integrity of the online educational experience. Included in this statement of assurance is:

I will abide by all rules and regulations published by the CTECS. I agree that I am subject to all disciplinary procedures established by the CTECS. I understand that I must have access to and fluency with a computer and possess the technical skills necessary in order to be successful in the online program. I agree to complete assignments and tests and meet established deadlines.

As a user of the internet courses, I agree to abide by the CTECS Electronic Information Resources Policy and to access the internet courses only for lawful purposes. All assignments I submit to the teacher and all tests I take shall be solely performed by me, except where the teacher has requested that I participate in a group discussion or project. I will not submit work that is plagiarized or otherwise violates copyright laws.

I will respect the privacy of other users. I will not obstruct, disrupt, or interfere with the teaching and learning occurring on the website. I will not harass, stalk, threaten, abuse, insult, or humiliate anyone using the online system. This includes, but is not limited to, demeaning written or oral comments of an ethnic, sexist, or racist nature as well as unwanted sexual advances or intimidation.

As a member of the CTECS community, I am solely responsible for adhering to all relevant laws, statutes, rules, and regulations.

Beginning on July 6th I, _____, agree to login daily and work to complete my assignments on time.
